Peter Nikiforuk

A native of Brantford, Ontario, Peter received his early musical training with Nan and Markwell Perry. Over the years, he has studied with John Tuttle, Robert Baker, Thomas Murray, John Scott and Patrick Russil. The recipient of numerous prizes and scholarships, in 1993 Peter was awarded the degree of Doctor of Musical Arts from Yale University. Peter studied at the Royal Academy of Music in London, England, graduating with an Advanced Course Diploma. In 1996, Peter won the prestigious Leslie Bell Prize in Choral Conducting. Peter has been Director of Music at St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Kitchener since 1989 and an instructor of music theory and history at the Beckett School since 2000. He is also an examiner in theory for both the Royal Conservatory and the RCCO. Peter was appointed director of Menno Singers in 1998. An active recitalist and clinician, Peter is also co-owner and editor for Kelman Hall Publishing, which specializes in sacred music. In June 2009, Dr. Nikiforuk was honoured for his contributions to Kitchener-Waterloo by the Laurier Centre for Music in the Community.
